

ALLIED DENTAL HEALTH PROFESSIONAL (ADHP) MEMBERSHIP

Join with over 5,000 dental professionals and enjoy the benefits of membership.

Discounts on Continuing Education (CE)

Receive up to $35 annually by attending CE courses sponsored by the MDS (excluding the Yankee Dental Congress). Rebates can be redeemed through a variety of courses offered by the MDS, such as radiographic interpretation, DANB preparation, nonsurgical periodontics, OSHA, and oral cancer screening. Review the current course listings at www.massdental.org.

Professional Newsletter

The quarterly ADHP News is dedicated to issues that concern you as a dental professional. Topics covered include: how to deal with difficult patients, OSHA and HIPPA updates, and trends in dentistry.

Access to Insurance Savings

In today's environment, special discounts are typically reserved for groups. Join and access the benefits that over 5,000 dental professionals already receive. You can receive up to 10% off auto insurance and a number of other money-savings discounts on personal and travel insurances with the Society's insurance agencies, Eastern Dental Insurance Agency (EDIA) and the Massachusetts Dental Society Insurance Services (MDSIS).

Financial Services

Utilize the Society's Eastern Dental Financial Services (EDFS) to assist you in managing your retirement or savings accounts. EDFs staff members are professional managers dedicated to assisting professionals in the dental field and providing personal service.

Special Discounts

Access special savings only available to members and gain discounts on home mortgages, travel insurance, credit cards, and career services. Members can also access the MDS Mall, where you can receive up to 5% back in cash for purchases at over 400 stores, including Barnes and Noble, Lands' End, Macys, and the Apple Store.

Practical Assistance and Members Only Web Site

Get answers to questions that you need answered today! The MDS staff is knowledgeable in all areas of the profession, including licensure, HIPPA, OSHA, office procedures, and practice standards. MDS staff members are available for members everyday by phone or email. Also, access the MDS web site to get critical practice updates, access classified ads, review the MDS News or Journal.
